AN EVENING IN PARIS!

☒ Yes, I will support Children's Aid and Family Services' Annual Fall Fundraiser on October 16, 2025

Children's Aid and Family Services, a 501(c)3, is one of northern New Jersey's leading non-profit providers of human services programs. Your support of "An Evening in Paris" will help us raise much-needed funds for our programs and enable us to continue to make a meaningful difference in the lives of children, adults and families in the community. By donating to this event, you will support programs such as:

- Treatment foster care and adoption programs for vulnerable children and teens,
- Baby Basics which provides free diapers and formula to local low-income families,
- The Center for Alcohol and Drug Resources which provides community and school-based prevention and education programs, and peer recovery support services for those struggling with addiction,
- Community residences, specialized services and day programming for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities,
- Intensive mentoring for young adults who have left foster care and are transitioning into adulthood.
